

Investing in Our Public Health Workforce

Our vision for healthier people and communities requires a well-trained workforce, ready to take on large and complex challenges. That's why we're committed to ensuring that they have access to training, tools, and resources that are:

High-Quality

Only the very best training, vetted by experts and practitioners alike

Relevant

The most current trends in public health and the skills needed to keep up with a dynamic field

Responsive

A training librarian, available to help you find the right training to meet your needs across multiple platforms, including connections to like-minded peers

Easily-Accessible

A clear and easy-to-understand system of organizing content by topic, field, or skills

Standardized descriptions in plain language to help learners select the right resource

A simple registration process that will provide access to training resources across multiple sources

PH Learning Navigator

A curated, guided, and individualized experience to help public health learners navigate to training, tools, and resources they need to support community and population health.
